

EXPANSION JOINTS

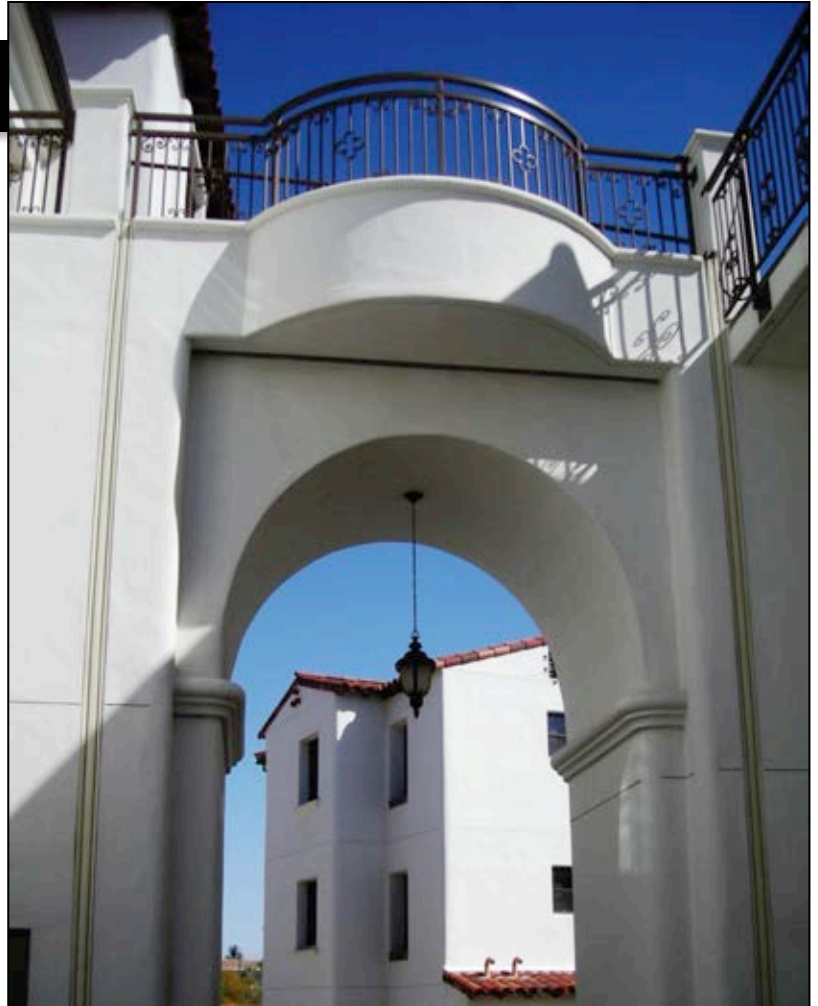

West Coast Firestopping, Inc. is a specialty contractor located within the southern California area with a combined 20+ years of experience handling the coordination and installation of “specialty” items within a construction project including the installation of interior and exterior expansion joint systems designed to meet the unique demands of the construction industry.

Archifectural Expansion Joint

Benefits to using West Coast:

- Attractive & durable solutions
- Bid-Time Pricing to accurately control costs
- Cost effective joint system selection; the right system for specific project
- Access to, and support from, ALL major manufacturers which means quick turn around
- Project management & coordination of joint installation

Parking Structure Expansion Joint