

SLAB EDGE JOINTS

West Coast Firestopping, Inc. is a specialty contractor located in California with a combined 20+ years of experience handling the coordination and installation of “specialty” items within a construction project including the installation of curtain wall and slab edge joint systems designed to meet the unique demands of the construction industry.

Before Installation

After Installation

Before Installation

After Installation

BENEFITS TO USING WEST COAST:

- Bid-Time Pricing to accurately control costs
- Cost effective joint system selection; the right system for each specific project
- Access to, and support from, ALL major manufacturers which means quick turn around
- Project management & coordination of joint installation